

Monitoring Report

[CC]=Derived from Closed Captioning; I=Interview; GR=Graphic; PC=Press Conference; R=Reader; SI=Studio Interview; T=Teaser; TZ=Teased Segment; V=Visual

UCSB-JOHN SHALIKSHVILI

01/02 to 01/04

North American Markets

1. The Situation Room

DMA: N/A

CNN (---) National

01/02/2007 05:00 PM - 06:00 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:27:36 TZ; Military ban: Former Joint Chiefs of Staff chairman calls for end to the ban on gays in the military. GR; Gen. John Shalikashvili statement. I; David Hall, is suing the Defense Dept. V; Soldiers. I; C. Dixon Osburn, says they need more recruits. I; Andrea Lafferty, Traditional Values Coalition, says it will hurt morale. SI; William Cohen, discusses the issue. Kathleen Koch reporting. 00:35:02

2. The Situation Room

DMA: N/A

CNN (---) National

01/02/2007 07:00 PM - 08:00 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:31:40 TZ; Rethinking Gay Ban: >Former Joint Chiefs of Staff Chairman Gen. John Shalikashvili has said that it's time to revisit the so-called don't ask don't tell policy. GR; Statement from Gen. John Shalikashvili, Ret.-Former Joint Chiefs of Staff Chairman, about the issue, from The New York Times. I; David Hall, Former Air Force Staff Sgt, talks about the policy. V; Hall, who is one of 12 suing the Defense Department to be reinstated. V; Soldiers. I; C. Dixon Osburn, Servicemembers Legal Defense Net, talks about the policy. I; Andrea Lafferty, Traditional Values Coalition, talks about the issue. Kathleen Koch reporting. >SI; William Cohen, Former Defense Secretary, The Cohen Group Chair and CEO, talks about the article and gays in the military. 00:38:51

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

3. Paula Zahn Now
CNN (---) National

DMA: N/A

01/02/2007 08:00 PM - 09:00 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:09:22 TZ; Gays in Military: Officer who was chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff when US Military in 1993 when US Military adopted the don't ask, don't tell policy, now advocates that it be dropped. GR; The New York Times, Editorial by General John Shalikashvili, Ret, Former Chairman of Joint Chiefs of Staff. SI; David Hall, Former Air Force Staff Sgt, Why did hed not say this earlier. SI; C Dixon Osburn, Don't Ask, Don't Tell, Critic, Says the US Military is barely meeting it's recruiting goals right now, yet they are kicking out qualified people because they are gay. Said that new Zogby Poll of service members reports that three quarters said they were comfortable interacting with gay people. SI; Andrea Lafferty, Traditional Values Coalition, Says I think it will be a moral issue. V; Military Footage. V; American Airlines Jet. SI; Rear Admiral Alan Steinman, US Coast Guard, Ret, Says it is hard to overestimate the importance of General Shalikashvili's opinion and editorial this morning. Said that Professor at Naval Post Graduate School in Monterey California reported that 75 percent of his young naval officer students know gays on active duty. 00:15:16

4. The Ten O'Clock News
KTVU-TV CH 2 (FOX) San Francisco

DMA: 5

01/02/2007 10:00 PM - 11:00 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:07:38 Policy: General John Shalikashvili's changed his mind about the Don't Ask Don't Tell Policy prohibiting openly gay Soldiers in the US Military. V; Shalikashvili, Bill Clinton. 00:08:05

5. CBS 5 Eyewitness News At 11 PM
KPIX-TV CH 5 (CBS) San Francisco

DMA: 5

01/02/2007 11:00 PM - 11:35 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:25:10 TZ; Change of Heart: In a NY Times article, Army General John Shalikashvili believes openly gay people should be able to serve in the military. V; photo of Shalikashvili, statement by John Shalikashvili, Former Joint Chief's Chairman courtesy of the NY Times. Shalikashvili was the Joint Chief's Chairman when the Army instituted its Don't Ask, Don't Tell Policy. 00:25:43

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

6. Local 8 NightsideDMA: 27*KFMB-TV CH 8 (CBS) San Diego*01/02/2007 11:00 PM - 11:35 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:09:30 New tonight: a former joint chiefs chairman says he no longer opposes allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John shalikashvili once supported the pentagon's "don't ask, don't tell" policy. At that time, he believed allowing homosexuals to serve "openly" would hurt troop morale and recruitment, he has since met with gay servicemen and says he has now changed his mind. Gay rights activists in Massachusetts protested the decision to advance a proposed ban on gay marriage. Lawmakers voted today to allow the proposed state constitutional amendment to move forward. Massachusetts is currently the only state where gay marriage is legal. The proposal still needs approval of the next legislative session 00:11:01

7. America This MorningDMA: N/A*ABC (---) National*01/03/2007 04:30 AM - 05:00 AM

00:05:27 Gays in military: New York Times reports retired Army general John Shalikashvili no longer opposes openly gay troops to service. V; Shalikashvili. Shlikashvili had conversations with gay servicemen. 00:05:48

8. Local 2 Today At 5 AMDMA: 10*KPRC-TV CH 2 (NBC) Houston*01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:46:21 Change of Opinion: R; John Shalikashvili, former Joint Chiefs of Staff Chairman, now believes gays should be allowed to serve openly in the US Military. Shalikashvili was in command when The Pentagon adopted the don't ask, don't tell policy. 00:46:42

9. CBS 2 Morning NewsDMA: 149*KPSP-TV CH 38 (CBS) Palm Springs/Palm Desert*01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:19:18 A former U.S. Military leader has changed his mind on "don't ask, don't tell". The policy that defines the only way gays can serve in the U.S. Armed forces. Former joint chiefs chairman john shalikashvili says he no longer feels gays should be banned from military service under "dont ask, dont tell" in a New York times article shalikashvili says he now feels gays and lesbians can be accpeted by their military peers. He admits to originally feeling gays in the military could hurt troop morale. The 110th congress gets to work tomorrow, with the democrats in charge. On the top of their agenda, Iraq. The bush administration wants an estimated 100-Billion dollars to pay for the war in Iraq. And lawmakers may be asked to back a plan that would lift restrictions on deploying reserve troops. Some analys predict the democrats will play a balancing act for awhile to ow they can govern and help the white house resolve the war. 00:21:06

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

10. The News On 6 Morning Update

DMA: 62

KOTV-TV CH 6 (CBS) Tulsa

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:13:18 A former joint chiefs chairman says he's changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. He initially supported the policy when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy. At that time, he says he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. He says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. The current policy allows gays and lesbians to serve in the military, only if they keep their sexual orientation private. Gay marriage opponents in Massachusetts are celebrating a major victory this morning. Lawmakers have approved the first step toward letting voters have a say on gay marriage. In two separate votes, lawmakers supported the amendment. The measure defines marriages as between one man and one woman. It still needs approval of the next legislative session before it can be added to the 2008 ballot. Massachusetts is the only state in the nation where gay marriage is legal. 00:14:54

[CC] 00:41:57 A former joint chiefs chairman says he's changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. He initially supported the policy when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy. At that time, he says he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. He says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. The current policy allows gays and lesbians to serve in the military, only if they keep their sexual orientation private. Gay marriage opponents in Massachusetts are celebrating a major victory this morning lawmakers have approved the first step toward letting voters have a say on gay marriage. 00:43:38

11. News 36 Firstcast

DMA: 52

KXAN-TV CH 36 (NBC) Austin

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:02:21 A former joint chiefs chairman is speaking out against the current policy for gays in the military. Military. John Shalikashvili says he does not support the ban on openly gay servicemen and women. He says he did support the policy initially, but changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen saying that he sees now that gays and lesbians can be accepted by their peers. Currently gays and lesbians may only serve in the military if they keep their sexual orientation private. Today president bush is sending out a new call for bi-Partisanship in Washington. The president wrote an op-ed that appears in today's wall street journal. He says the new congress provides an opportunity to build a bipartisan consensus to fight and win the war in Iraq. 00:04:36

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

12. Fox 35 News At 5
WOGX-TV CH 51 (FOX) Gainesville
01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM
Available formats: QuickView, transcript

DMA: 162

[CC] 00:39:32 This morning, a former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. Shalikashvili supported the policy when the pentagon started its "don't ask, don't tell" back in the 90's. At that time he says he thought allowing gays to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. But he says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. Massachussetts lawmakers have decided to let people vote on a proposed constitutional amendment to ban gay marriage. The bill still needs the approval of the next legislative session. The proposed ban would be on the ballot in 2008. Right now, Massachusetts is the only state where gay marriage is legal. 00:40:38

13. KHQ News 5 AM
KHQ-TV CH 6 (NBC) Spokane
01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 05:30 AM
Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

DMA: 77

[CC] 00:21:12 A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military john Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. Shalikashvili supported the policy when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy on gays. At that time he says he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. But he says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. More information, currently, gays and lesbians may serve in the military only if they keep their sexual orientation private. Commanders may not ask, and gay service members may not tell. Khq news time, there's a new beer tasting law!! And it's causing some controversy, the story in just a few minutes, 00:22:18

14. Fox 7 News In The Morning
KTBC-TV CH 7 (FOX) Austin
01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM
Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

DMA: 52

[CC] 00:30:22 A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. He supported the decision when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy. At that time, he says he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. Under the current policy, gays and lesbians may serve in e military only if they keep their sexual orientation private. Possible prisoner mistreatment at guantanamo bay. The FBI Says some of its employees witnessed more than two dozen cases of abuse by military officials and civilian contractors. It's report does not say whether any laws were broken, but noted that nothing its employees saw rose to the level of abuse seen at the abu ghraib prison in Iraq. The documents were released to the American civil liberties union. A pentagon spokesman says the issues raised in the report are not new. An Iraqi prosecutor is speaking out against the leaked cell phone video of saddam's execution. Less than 24 hours after the execution, a full length cell phone video --With sound --Surfaced on the internet. All the witnesses to the execution were supposed to have had their cell phones taken away. An Iraqi prosecutor 00:33:20

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

15. KRQE News 13 This Morning
KRQE-TV CH 13 (CBS) Albuquerque/Santa Fe
01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

DMA: 45

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:46:28 A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. At that time, he says he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. But he says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. Currently, gays and lesbians may serve in the military only if they keep their sexual orientation private. Five years after the 9/11 attacks emergency workers in several cities may have trouble communicating with one another in the event of another attack or disaster. A report by the department of homeland security --Due out today --Says only six out of 75 major US Cities get the top grade for their communication systems --Washington, San Diego, and Minneapolis-St. Paul among them. Chicago and Cleveland are near the bottom of the list. New York City ranks 14th. Looking now at this morning's top health headlines, two new studies on post-traumatic stress disorder show that veterans likely have a greater risk of heart attack as they age and worse physical health, more doctor visits and more missed workdays. The lead author of one study said the continual release of adrenaline prompted by the symptoms of post-Traumatic stress disorder may wear down the 00:48:29

16. Good Morning Tennessee
WATE-TV CH 6 (ABC) Knoxville

DMA: 60

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:43:58 A former US Army commander has changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. In a New York Times opinion piece, John Shalikashvili says meeting with gay servicemen showed him that gays and lesbians can be accepted by their peers. Shalikashvili was chairman of the joint chiefs when the Pentagon adopted its current "don't ask don't tell" policy. That's your forecast and traffic together. We'll update these again at five fifty six. 00:45:26

17. Good Morning Connecticut
WTNH-TV CH 8 (ABC) Hartford/New Haven

DMA: 28

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:43:07 Before voters see the amendment proposal on the 2008 ballot, the next legislature will also have to approve the measure. A former leader in the US Military, says he's changed his mind about allowing gays to serve. Former joint chiefs chairman John Shalikashvili (shal'-ee-kash-vee'-lee) says he no longer supports the current policy of 'don't ask don't tell'. He says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen and women. In a piece in the New York Times, he says times have changed, and gays and lesbians can be accepted by their peers. Religious broadcaster Pat Robertson has a new year's message for America. Robertson says God told him there will be a mass killing in the US this year, perhaps a horrific terror attack. He says God says the mass killing will affect major cities, and possibly millions of people. Robertson made these comments on his TV show, the 700 Club. Coming up on Good Morning Connecticut, New York transit officials say commuters should have a snack, before hopping on the subway. Find out why when we come back. Wx ad-lib, time?? 00:44:14

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

18. Good Morning Washington

DMA: 8

WJLA-TV CH 7 (ABC) Washington, DC

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:37:01 Policy: Pentagon don't ask, don't tell policy being opposed. V; war highlights. Retired Army general John Shalikashvili no longer opposes openly gay troops to service. 00:37:18

19. ABC 11 Eyewitness News

DMA: 29

WTVD-TV CH 11 (ABC) Raleigh/Durham

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:33:58 The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy has had a change of heart. In an op-ed in the "New York times retired army general John Shalikashvili says he no longer opposes openly gay troops to serve. 00:36:16

20. CBS 5 Eyewitness News At 5 AM

DMA: 5

KPIX-TV CH 5 (CBS) San Francisco

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:39:21 Military : Former General John Shlikashvili thinks gays should serve openly in the military reports the NY Times. GR; NY Times. V; John Shalikashvili. 00:39:55

21. News 13 This Morning

DMA: 70

KOLD-TV CH 13 (CBS) Tucson

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:36:32 A change of heart when it comes to the military s "don t ask don t tell policy." a former chairman of the joint chiefs of staff says he s changed his opinion. John Shalikashvili says he nlonger supports the ban. When the policy was first implemented he thought allowing homosexuals to openly serve would hurt troop morale, and recruitment. 00:37:46

22. News 25 Daybreak

DMA: 101

WEHT-TV CH 25 (ABC) Evansville

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:36:52 A former joint chiefs chairman is changing his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. Shalikashvili supported the policy when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy on gays. He says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. 00:38:22

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

23. Morning Report

DMA: 8

News Channel 8 (---) Washington, DC

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:50:13 A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military John Shalikhshvili says he no longer supports the ban. He says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. Currently, gays and lesbians may serve in the military only if they keep their sexual orientation private. 00:52:44

24. NBC 7/39 Today

DMA: 27

KNSD-TV CH 39 (NBC) San Diego

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:34:33 Gays in the Military: John Shalikhshvili, former Joint Chiefs of Staff Chairman, says that he no longer opposes homosexuals openly serving in the military. V; Footage of soldiers. He said the supported the Don't Ask Don't Tell policy because he felt it would hurt troop morale and recruitment. 00:35:00

25. KTVU Morning News Early Edition

DMA: 5

KTVU-TV CH 2 (FOX) San Francisco

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:18:21 Gays in military: Retired Army General John Shalikhshvili said he has changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve in the military. V; general. 00:18:47

26. News Channel 3 In The Morning

DMA: 149

KESQ-TV CH 42 (ABC) Palm Springs/Palm Desert

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:36:46 John Shalikhshvili says he no longer supports the policy because it's no longer needed he says the military has changed enough ---That gay and lesbian service members can be accepted by their peers. , Currently, gays and lesbians may serve in the military only if they keep their sexual orientation private, commanders may not ask ---And gay service members may not tell. 00:37:18

27. Action News AM Live

DMA: 55

KFSN-TV CH 30 (ABC) Fresno/Visalia

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:06:02 A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on allowing gays to openly serve in the military John Shalikhshvili says he no longer supports the 00:07:13

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

28. Fox 35 News At 5

DMA: 19

WOFL-TV CH 35 (FOX) Orlando

01/03/2007 05:00 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:39:27 This morning, a former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John shalikashvili says he no longer supportsgj tcahedq bepan}. Shalikashvili supported the policy when the pentagon started its "don't ask, don't tell" back in the 90's. At that time he says he thought allowing gays to serve openly. 00:40:17

29. Team 4 Wake-Up

DMA: 91

KGBT-TV CH 4 (CBS) Harlingen/Weslaco/Brownsville

01/03/2007 05:30 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:17:26 Last night --Lawmakers approved the first step toward letting voters have a say on gay marriage. In two separate votes, mawmakers supported the amendment. The measure defines marriage, as being between one man and one woman. It still needs to be approved in the next legislative session, before it can be added to the 2008 ballot. Massachusetts is the only state in the nation where gay marriage is legal. A former joint chiefs chairman says he's changed his opinion about allowing gays to serve openly in the military, John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. 00:18:46

30. News 10 At 5:30 AM

DMA: 56

WTEN-TV CH 10 (ABC) Albany/Schenectady/Troy

01/03/2007 05:30 AM - 06:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:18:15 In the only state where gay marriage is legal Massachusetts lawmakers are pushing thru a proposed ban on same-sex unions. The proposal defines marriage as between one man and one woman. But it still needs approval of the next legislative session before it can go on the 2008 ballot. 17-Lawmakers who voted yesterday will not be returning for the new session, that's good news for gay marriage supporters who say they'll pick up seven votes to block the amendment when the new session starts. Meanwhile a former j x~? Oint chiefs of staff says he's changed his mind on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John Shalikashvili supported the ban when the pentagon adopted the "don't ask, don't tell" policy. 00:19:50

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

31. NBC Newschannel 11 Today
KYMA-TV CH 11 (NBC) Yuma/EI Centro
01/03/2007 05:30 AM - 06:00 AM
Available formats: QuickView, transcript

DMA: 167

[CC] 00:02:35 More than four-Thousand national guard troops from Arizona have served in afghanistan since the war began in 2001. A former joint chiefs chairman has canged his opi on on allowing gays to serve openly in the milirty. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. He supported the policy when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy on gays. Says he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. But he says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. Currently, gays and lesbians may serve in the military only if they keep their sexual orientation private. Commanders may not ask, and gay service members may not tell
00:04:26

32. KRQE News 13 This Morning
KRQE-TV CH 13 (CBS) Albuquerque/Santa Fe
01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM
Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

DMA: 45

[CC] 00:46:14 A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. At that time, he says he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. But he says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. Currently, gays and lesbians may serve in the military only if they keep their sexual orientation private. 00:47:53

33. Morning Report
News Channel 8 (---) Washington, DC
01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM
Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

DMA: 8

[CC] 00:50:16 A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military john shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. He says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. Currently, gays and lesbians may serve in the military only if they keep their sexual orientation private. 00:52:51

34. WHP CBS 21 Morning News
WHP-TV CH 21 (CBS) Harrisburg/Lancaster/Lebanon/York
01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM
Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

DMA: 41

[CC] 00:34:07 A former top military official in Washington says he's changed his mind on allowing gays in the military. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the pentagon's "don't ask, don't tell" policy.
00:35:58

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

35. Fox 6 News In The Morning
XETV-TV CH 6 (FOX) San Diego

DMA: 27

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:13:50 Gay: Former Joint Chiefs of Staff Chairman John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban on homosexuals in the military. V; Soldiers in Iraq. 00:14:17

36. Fox 6 News Daybreak

DMA: 40

WBRC-TV CH 6 (FOX) Birmingham/Anniston

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 06:30 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:11:15 A former joint chiefs chairman, changing his stance on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. He originally thought homosexuals would hurt troop morale and recruitment. Shalikashvili says he changed his mind after meeting with gay service members. The state of Massachusetts, one step closer to banning gay marriage. It's currently the only state to legally recognize gay marriage. Only a handful of states allow civil unions. Massachusetts will give its voters a chance to approve the ban. State legislators must first approve the measure themselves.

00:12:54

37. News 36 Firstcast

DMA: 52

KXAN-TV CH 36 (NBC) Austin

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:34:54 A former joint chiefs chairman is speaking out against the current policy for gays in the military. John Shalikashvili says he does not support the ban on openly gay servicemen and women. He says he did support the policy initially, but changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen saying that he sees now that gays and lesbians can be accepted by their peers. Currently gays and lesbians may only serve in the military if they keep their sexual orientation private. 00:36:37

38. News Channel 3 In The Morning

DMA: 149

KESQ-TV CH 42 (ABC) Palm Springs/Palm Desert

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:36:45 He supported the pentagon's "don't ask --Don't tell" policy --That allowed gays to serve in the armed forces --So long as they did not speak about their sexuality. , Now ---A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on the Clinton era policy, John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the policy because it's no longer needed, he says the military has changed enough ---That gay and lesbian service members can be accepted by their peers, currently, gays and lesbians may serve in the military only if they keep their sexual orientation private, commanders may not ask ---And gay service members may not tell. 00:37:59

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

39. Action News AM Live

DMA: 55

KFSN-TV CH 30 (ABC) Fresno/Visalia

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:06:01 A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on allowing gays to openly serve in the military John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the rule that requires gay servicemen and women to keep quiet about their sexual orientation. He says he once thought allowing homosexuals to openly openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. But he says he changed his mind after meeting with gay troops. 00:07:13

40. Fox 26 News 6:00 AM

DMA: 10

KRIV-TV CH 26 (FOX) Houston

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:09:30 Gays in Military : R; General John Shalikashmili has changed his mind about gays in the military. 00:09:54

41. CBS 5 Eyewitness News At 6 AM

DMA: 5

KPIX-TV CH 5 (CBS) San Francisco

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:38:50 Don't Ask Don't Tell: John Shalikashvili, the former Army general who implemented the military's Don't Ask Don't Tell policy thinks gays should be able to serve openly in the military, reports the New York Times. GR; Excerpts from John Shalikashvili. 00:39:24

42. NBC Newschannel 11 Today

DMA: 167

KYMA-TV CH 11 (NBC) Yuma/EI Centro

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, transcript

[CC] 00:35:22 John shalikashvili (shal'-Ee-kash-vee'-lee) says he no longer supports the ban. Shalikashvili supported the policy when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy on gays. At that time he says he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt t op morale and rec2uitment. But he says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. Currently, gays and lesbians may ser&e in the military only if they keep the sexual orientation private. Commanders may not ask, and gay service members may not tell. 00:37:14

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

43. Six In The Morning
KOTV-TV CH 6 (CBS) Tulsa
01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

DMA: 62

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:32:31 A former joint chiefs chairman says he's changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. He initially supported the policy when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy. At that time, he says he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. He says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. The current policy allows gays and lesbians to serve in the military, only if they keep their sexual orientation private. Gay marriage opponents in Massachusetts are celebrating a major victory this morning. Lawmakers have approved the first step toward letting voters have a say on gay marriage. In two separate votes, lawmakers supported the amendment. The measure defines marriages as between one man and one woman. It still needs approval of the next legislative session before it can be added to the 2008 ballot. Massachusetts is the only state in the nation where gay marriage is legal. 00:34:03

44. Fox 59 News
WXIN-TV CH 59 (FOX) Indianapolis
01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

DMA: 25

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:53:01 Opinion on don't ask, don't tell. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. Shalikashvili used to think allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. But after meeting with gay servicemen he's changed his mind. After those talks, he says he sees how the military has changed. And he believes homosexuals can be accepted by their peers. The portrait of former New Jersey governor, jim mcgreevy is unveiled at the New Jersey statehouse. This was 00:53:29

45. Good Morning Live
NECN (---) Boston
01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

DMA: 7

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:47:12 A former chairman of the joint chiefs of staff is calling for the military to change its "don't ask don't tell" policy. Retired general John Shalikashvili (shal'-ee-kash-vee'-lee) says he initially supported the policy, but in an op-ed piece for the New York times today Shalikashvili says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. He now supports allowing openly gay troops to serve in the military 00:49:06

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

46. News Channel 7 Daybreak

DMA: 36

WSPA-TV CH 7 (CBS) Greenville-Spartanburg SC/Asheville NC

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:11:43 The former joint chiefs of staff, seems to be shifting his seems to be shifting his thoughts, on the 'don't ask don't tell' policy, John Shalikashvili once supported the idea, but now, he thinks fellow troops would accept openly gay membrs, after lking with servicemen, 00:12:29

47. Fox 11 Morning News At 6:00

DMA: 2

KTTV-TV CH 11 (FOX) Los Angeles

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:05:01 Gays in the military: Retired Joint Chiefs Chairman Gen. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the Pentagons so called dont ask, dont tell policy, saying gays should be allowed to serve openly. V; John Shalikashvili. V; Troops. 00:05:34

48. Fox 7 News In The Morning

DMA: 52

KTBC-TV CH 7 (FOX) Austin

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:33:47 A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his mind on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. He used to back the pentagon's policy of "don't ask, don't tell". After meeting with gay servicemen, Shalikashvili says he now sees how much the military has changed and that gay people can be accepted by their peers. Currently, gays and lesbians may serve in the military only if they keep their sexual orientation private. Commanders can not ask and service members may not tell. Five years after 9-11, just a handful US Cities won high grades for their emergency agencies' ability to communicate during a disaster. A draft portion of the federal report, set to be released today, gives the best ratings to Washington, D-. san dieg. Minneapolis-st. Pau. Columbus, and sioux falls. The lowest scores went to chicag. cleveland. baton roug. mandan, orth dakota. and American samoa. The report said all 75 areas surveyed do have policies in place to help their emergency workers communicate. But, it cautioned that regular testing and exercises are needed to effectively link all the different systems. Former president geralford will be laid to rest today. His casket made the journey to Michigan from Washington after yesterday's memorial service. And even after a national day of mourning, thousands have been waiting for hours to say their final farewell. Fox's doug luzader joins us live from Washington. 00:35:05

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

49. News 10 At 6:00 AM

DMA: 56

WTEN-TV CH 10 (ABC) Albany/Schenectady/Troy

01/03/2007 06:00 AM - 07:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:53:19 In the only state where gay marriage is legal Massachusetts lawmakers are pushing thru a proposed ban on same-sex unions. The proposal defines marriage as between one man and one woman. But it still needs approval of the next legislative session before it can go on the 2008 ballot.

17-Lawmakers who voted yesterday will not be returning for the new session, that's good news for gay marriage supporters who say they'll pick up seven votes to block the amendment when the new session starts. Meanwhile a former joint chiefs of staff says he's changed his mind on allowing gays to serve openly in the military. John Shalikashvili supported the ban when the pentagon adopted the "don't ask, don't tell" policy. He says he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt recruitment and troop morale. But he says his opinion changed recently after talking with gay servicemen. T 00:54:59

50. Good Day LA

DMA: 2

KTTV-TV CH 11 (FOX) Los Angeles

01/03/2007 07:00 AM - 08:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:19:22 Gays In Military: Retired Joint Chief Gen. John Shalikashvili no longer supports the Pentagon don't ask, don't tell policy and should end the gay ban policy, and allow them in with no restrictions. V; John Shalikashvili. 00:19:59

51. Fox5 Morning News

DMA: 8

WTTG-TV CH 5 (FOX) Washington, DC

01/03/2007 07:00 AM - 08:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:36:33 Gays in the Military: General John Shalikashmili has changed his mind about gays in the military. V; Shalikashmili(sp). 00:37:00

52. Fox 6 Wake Up News

DMA: 34

WITI-TV CH 6 (FOX) Milwaukee

01/03/2007 07:00 AM - 08:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:05:05 News Briefs: V; Car crashed into a building. The US military is reporting one new death of a soldier in Iraq. V; Peace action WI vigil at Milwaukee federal courthouse. John Shalikashvili says he supports gays in the military. The NY Times interviewed Shalikashvili. V; National guard helicopter crash in San Diego. V; IN plane crashed into a field. The FAA is investigating the crash. The FBI is releasing new reports about possible mistreatment of detainees at Guantanamo bay. Helicopters are delivering food to residents and cows in CO because of a snow storm. V; Blizzard footage in Kansas. V; Mudslide clean up crews in Tacoma WA. There was a norovirus outbreak at San Quentin prison in CA. V; CA state prison. Diving with sharks in South Africa may encourage deadly attacks. V; Divers swimming with sharks. 00:09:30

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

53. Good Day New York

DMA: 1

WNYW-TV CH 5 (FOX) New York

01/03/2007 07:00 AM - 08:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:14:10 TZ; Military Policy: Former Chairman of Joint Chiefs of Staff, Gen. John Shalikashvili, no longer opposes gays serving openly in the military. V; troops at war. 00:14:31

54. CNN Headline News

DMA: N/A

CNN Headline News (---) National

01/03/2007 07:30 AM - 08:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:13:33 A former joint chief chairman is doing an about-face on the issue of gays in the military. John shalikashvili says he no longer opposes allowing gays and lesbians to serve openly. He was joint chiefs chairman when the pentagon adopted the "don't ask, don't tell" policy. Back then, Shalikashvili said that having gays serve openly would hurt morale. > another showdown is coming over same-sex marriage in Massachusetts. State lawmakers have voted to advance a proposed constitutional amendment to ban gay marriage by putting it on the 2008 ballot. State law says the proposal must be approved by two consecutive legislatures before it's put to the voters, so lawmakers will have to vote on the measure again before next year's election. Massachusetts has allowed gay couples to marry since 2004. > 101, 102, 103. Sorry. 00:14:37

55. Fox 6 News In The Morning

DMA: 27

XETV-TV CH 6 (FOX) San Diego

01/03/2007 08:00 AM - 09:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:08:38 Don't Ask Don't Tell: Former Joint Chiefs Chairman John Shalikashvili says it's alright for gays to serve openly in the military in The New York Times. V; Soldiers. 00:09:01

56. Good Morning Live

DMA: 7

NECN (---) Boston

01/03/2007 08:00 AM - 09:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:47:26 Retired General John Shalikashvili: A former chairman of the joint chiefs of staff no longer supports the military's don't ask don't tell policy. V; Retired General John Shalikashvili. Anchor discusses the NY Times. 00:47:46

57. Your Morning On CN8

DMA: 4

CN8 CH 8 (IND) Philadelphia

01/03/2007 09:00 AM - 10:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:04:12 Gays in Military: John Shalikashvili, former chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, told the NY Times this week that he no longer supports the military's Don't Ask Don't Tell policy. V; soldiers. 00:04:39

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

58. CNN Headline News

DMA: N/A

CNN Headline News (---) National

01/03/2007 10:30 AM - 11:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:02:47 > a former joint chief chairman is doing an about-face on t issue of gays in the military. John shalikashvili says he no longer opposes allowing gays and lesbians to serve openly. He was joint chiefs chairman when the pentagon adopted the "don't ask, don't tell" policy. Back then, shalikashvili said that having gays serve openly would hurt morale. 00:03:04

59. News Channel 25 Midday News

DMA: 95

KXXV-TV CH 25 (ABC) Waco/Temple

01/03/2007 11:00 AM - 11:30 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:19:09 New york mayor rudy giuliani's presidential campaign strategy is now in the public's hands. It was reported yesterday by a New York city paper. A spokeswoman claims it was taken from a piece of airline luggage. The daily news said the schedule includes a plan to raise at least $100 million. The document also outlines giuliani's political weaknesses, like his three marriages and moderate stances on issues like gun control and gay rights. An army general says it may be time for gay members of the miliry to serve openly. John shalikashvili was the nation's top military officer when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy on gays. He says he no longer opposes allowing them to serve openly after talking with gay military officers. His view could carry weight at a time the US Can no afford to exclude any qualified volunteers. It's not clear, however, how much enthusiasm congress will have for pressing the matter. Evangelical broadcaster pat robertson says god has spoken to him --And he predicts a terrorist attack on the United States in 2007. Robertson says the attack will cause a "mass killing" late this year. Robertson said god told him about the impending tragedy during a recent prayer retreat. Last may, robertson said god told him a tsunamwould to crash into America in 2006 --Which proved to be wrong. A New York city man jumped in front of an oncoming subway train to save a teen who fell on the tracks. The teen suffered a seizure and collapsed onto the subway line yesterday. Another man on the platform jumped down and pushed the teen into a drainage trench in between the tracks, two of the subway cars passed over the men --With only inches to spare. 00:20:48

60. CNN Headline News

DMA: N/A

CNN Headline News (---) National

01/03/2007 11:00 AM - 11:30 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:02:36 A former joint chiefs chairman is doing an about-ace on the issue of gays in the military. John shalikashvili says he no longer opposes allowing gays and lesbians to serve openly. The retired army general was joint chiefs chairman when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy. Back then, shalikashvili said that having gays serve openly would hurt morale. > another showdown is coming over same-sex marriage in Massachusetts. State lawmakers have voted to advance a proposed constitutional amendment, to ban gay marriage by putting it on the 2008 ballot. State law says the proposal must be approved by two consecutive legislatures before it's put to the voters. So lawmakers will have to vote on the measure again before next year's election. Massachusetts has allowed gay couples to marry since 2004. 00:05:14

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

61. Dakota First News Today
KSFY-TV CH 13 (ABC) Sioux Falls/Mitchell
01/03/2007 11:30 AM - 12:00 PM

DMA: 115

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:14:26 They'll be on active federal duty for up to a year and a half. A former joint chiefs chairman s changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military john Shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. He supported the policy when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy on gays. At that time he says he thoug allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. But he says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. There are disturbing findings in new documents released by the FBI Concerning possible mistreatment of detainees at the guantanamo bay military base. Among more than two dozen incidents is a report of a detainee whose head was wrapped in duct tape and another detainee who pulled his hair out after spending hours in a sweltering room. Anxious relatives are losing patience with indonesia's search for a missing boeing 737 as authorities expand their search to the sea after initially saying the plane hit a mountain. On Tuesday, officials mistakenly said a dozen survivors had been found with the plane's charred wreckage. Later when word got out that it was just a rumor, people broke down in tears and berated officials for giving them "false hope." three Americans were aboard the jetliner that disappeared on Monday. More survivors havu been found from a ferry that sunk in the java sea Friday, off the indonesian cost. Navy officers say 12 people were discovered on an un-mand oil rig. Officials say at least 205 passengers have now be rescued. But some 400 more are still missing, and scores of bodies have been seen floating or washed up on beaches. Rescue efforts are expected to continue through at least the weekend. The accident is being blamed on bad weather. 00:16:04

62. CNN Headline News
CNN Headline News (---) National
01/03/2007 11:30 AM - 12:00 PM

DMA: N/A

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:05:48 A former joint chiefs chairman is doing an about-face on the issue of gays in the military. John shalikashvili says he no longer opposes allowing gays and lesbians to serve openly. He was joint chiefs chairman when the pentagon adopted the "don't ask, don't tell" policy. Ack then, shalikashvili said having gays serve openly would hurt morale. > another showdown is coming over same-sex marriage in Massachusetts. State lawmakers have voted to advance a proposed constitutional amendment to ban the practice by putting it on the 2008 ballot. State law says the proposal must be approved by two consecutive legislatures before it's put to the voters so lawmakers will have to vote on the measure again before next year's election. Massachusetts has allowed same-sex marriages since 2004. 00:06:27

63. News Channel 8
WTNH-TV CH 8 (ABC) Hartford/New Haven
01/03/2007 12:00 PM - 01:00 PM

DMA: 28

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

00:15:13 Don't Tell: Former Joint Chiefs Chairman John Shalikashvili has changed his view on the military's Don't Ask, Don't Tell Policy. V; war footage. He no longer supports the policy. He says he met with Gay servicemen and women. New York Times piece referenced; Gays and Lesbians can now be accepted by their peers. 00:15:34

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

64. News 13 At Noon

DMA: 70

KOLD-TV CH 13 (CBS) Tucson

01/03/2007 12:00 PM - 12:30 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:04:12 The new democratic-Led session begins tomorrow. Democrats will be in control of both chambers for the first time in 12 years. Earlier today, president bush urged lawmakers to work with his administration, saying politics as usual will result in a stalemate. President bush: "it s time to set aside politics and focus on the future." "the cgress has changed. Our obligations to the count haven t changed." house speaker-Elect nancy pelosi has promised that democrats will immediately take up proposals for lower prescription drug prices for medicare beneficiaries, ethics reform, and proposals to lift federal restrictions on stem-Cell research. A change of heart when it comes to the military s "don t ask don t tell policy." a former chairman of the jnt chiefs of staff says he has changed his opinion. John Shalikhshvili says he no longer supports the ban on gays in the military. He has changed his mind from when the policy was first implemented and he thought allowing gays to openly serve would hurt troop morale, and recruitment. Six days of tribute to gerald ford come to an end today, when the former president is laid to rest. Manuel gallegus has more on today s services in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Locator:Grand Rapids, mi the final public viewing of president gerald fords flag-draped casket is over but not before more than 50,000 people said a last goodbye to the nations 38th president during an all-Night tribute in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Sot: linda franks, Grand Rapids "to show my respects to someone who made a difference." for mourners, young and old at the ford presidential museum. 00:05:42

65. News Channel 3 At Noon

DMA: 42

WTKR-TV CH 3 (CBS) Norfolk/Portsmouth/Newport News

01/03/2007 12:00 PM - 12:30 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:24:55 A former joint chiefs chairman has changed his opinion on not allowing gays to serve openly in the military John Shalikhshvili says he no longer supports the ban. He did support it when the pentagon adopted its "don t ask, don t tell" policy --which is essentially gays can serve as long as they stay in the closet. At that time he says --He thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. But he says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen. 00:26:46

66. CNN Headline News

DMA: N/A

CNN Headline News (---) National

01/03/2007 12:30 PM - 01:00 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:17:02 The joint chiefs starm when the pentagon adopted its don't ask, don't tell approach to gays in the military says he no longer supports that policy. John Shalikhshvili now says gays should be allowed to serve openly. He argued that allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale but says the mitary has changed since the policy was adopted. 00:18:36

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

67. CNN Headline News

DMA: N/A

CNN Headline News (---) National
01/03/2007 01:00 PM - 01:30 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:06:30 Democrats, who will control the next congress, have promised to fix the problems but have not provided specifics about how they will do that or how much it will cost. > a former joint chiefs chairman is doing an about-face on the issue of gays in the military. John shalikashvili says he no longer opposes allowing gays and lesbians to serve openly. The retired army general was joint chiefs chairman when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy. Back then shalikashvili said having gays serve openly would hurt morale. > another showdown is coming over same-sex marriage in Massachusetts. Lawmakers there have voted to advance a proposed constitutional amendment to ban the practice by putting it on the 2008 ballot. State law says the proposal must be approved by two consecutive legislatures before it's put to the voters. So lawmakers will have to vote on the measure again before next year's election. Massachusetts has allowed same-sex marriages since 2004. 00:09:04

68. CNN Headline News

DMA: N/A

CNN Headline News (---) National
01/03/2007 02:00 PM - 02:30 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:04:42 A former joint chief chairman is doing an about-face on the issue of gays in the military. John shalikashvili says he now supports allowing gays and lesbians to serve openly. He was joint chiefs chairman when the pentagon adopted the "don't ask, don't tell" policy. Back then, shalikashvili said that having gays serve openly would hurt morale. > homeland security secretary michael chertoff. 00:06:02

69. Action News At 4:30

DMA: 43

KTNV-TV CH 13 (ABC) Las Vegas
01/03/2007 04:30 PM - 05:00 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:07:03 The man who was chairman of the joint chiefs of staff when the pentagon adopted its 'don't ask-Don't tell' policy on gays, says he no longer opposes gas serving openly in the military. Army general john shalikashvili had argued that allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt morale and recruitment. But, he now says he sees how much the military has changed. Shalikashvili expects fierce debate over the issue as congress considers the president's plan to expand the military. They're the stories that will make headlines tomorrow --But, why wait until then, when we have a preview for you now, as we told you, tomorrow democrats will take over congress, and promoting Nevada senator harry reid, to senate majority leader. 00:08:18

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

70. CNN Headline News

DMA: N/A

CNN Headline News (---) National

01/03/2007 04:30 PM - 05:00 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:16:57 A former joint chief chairman is doing an about-face on the issue of gays in the military. John shalikashvili says he now supports allowing gays and lesbians to serve openly. He was joint chiefs chairman when the pentagon adopted the "don't ask, don't tell" policy. Back then, shalikashvili said that having gays serve openly would hurt morale. > an army recruiting scandal is unfolding in rochester, New York. It involves a couple who went awol two months ago. They insist their recruiter lied, telling them they would be enlisted under the married couples program --A promise they thought would keep them stationed together and never overseas. A local TV station reports forged documents have been discovered in the couple's recruiting file. Now the army is investigating the person who signed them up. 00:18:10

71. KGUN 9 News At Five

DMA: 70

KGUN-TV CH 9 (ABC) Tucson

01/03/2007 05:00 PM - 05:30 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:11:36 A former joint chiefs chairman says he's changed his opinion on allowing gays to serve openly in the military john shalikashvili says he no longer supports the ban. Shalikashvil supported it when the pentagon adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy in 1994. He says at the time he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. In an opinion piece in today's New York times, shalikashvili writes that conversations with gay soldiers showed him "just how much the military has changed, and that gays and lesbians can be accepted by their peers. 00:13:21

72. BN9 Evening News

DMA: 12

Bay News 9 (---) Tampa/St. Petersburg

01/03/2007 05:30 PM - 06:00 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:15:47 Longer opposes gay servicemen in the military, john shalikasvili says he supported the pentagon on it's "don't ask, don't tell" policy on gays. At that time, he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. He says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen and, quote, " finding out just how much the military has changed and that gays and lesbians can be accepted by their peers. 00:17:48

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material

73. BN9 Primetime News

DMA: 12

Bay News 9 (---) Tampa/St. Petersburg
01/03/2007 10:30 PM - 11:00 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:15:41 John Shalikasvili says he supported the pentagon on it's "don't ask, don't tell" policy on gays. At that time, he thought allowing homosexuals to serve openly would hurt troop morale and recruitment. He says he changed his mind after meeting with gay servicemen and, quote, " finding out just how much the military has changed and that gays and lesbians can be accepted by their peers, ". China needs to be stocking up on bamboo! 00:17:17

74. KUSI News At 11:00 PM

DMA: 27

KUSI-TV CH 51 (IND) San Diego
01/03/2007 11:00 PM - 11:35 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:15:13 According to the pentagon, there are currently 132-thousand US Troops in Iraq. The former top army general, who helped to adopt the military's policy on homosexuals of: don't ask don't tell, has now changed his tune. John Shalikashvili now says he would support a policy change, allowing openly gay people to serve in the military. The former general says he once believed that open homosexuality would hurt troop morale, and undermine the effectiveness of combat units. But he changed his mind after meeting with gay service members. He says the policy should be changed, because it's preventing qualified people from serving our country. 00:16:45

75. Good Morning America

DMA: N/A

ABC (---) National
01/04/2007 07:00 AM - 08:00 AM

00:01:05 Former Joint Chiefs of Staff Chairman General John Shalikashvili says he agrees with allowing gays in the Military. V; General John Shalikashvili speaking. V; Cindy Sheehan protesting. Rep. Jack Murtha is vowing to have hearings every day on the President's proposal. Jake Tapper and George Stephanopoulos reporting. Reporter says that clip of Cindy Sheehan drowning out the Democrat Press Conference is a metaphor for this next congress. 00:06:47

that could be considered crude, inappropriate or offensive. If you do not wish to receive this type of content, please contact VMS. Please know that any information you receive from a blog search does not represent the views or opinions of VMS.

76. The Daily Buzz

DMA: N/A

Syndicated TV (---) National

01/04/2007 07:00 AM - 08:00 AM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:36:09 Gay policy change- A former "top" US Military officer is changing his tune when it comes to soldiers in the closet! John shali-kash-Vili, who was joint chiefs chairman when the defense department adopted its "don't ask, don't tell" policy on gays in the military in 1997, . Says he no longer opposes allowing them to serve "openly." Shalikhshvili had argued that allowing gays to come out would hurt troop morale and recruitment, but he told "the New York times" he changed his mind after meeting with gay service people. He said those conversations showed him just how much the military has changed, and that gays and lesbians can be accepted by their peers. Shalikhshvili is not the first former senior military officer to change his mind on the issue, but he "is" the most prominent. According to a new poll of about 500 US Military personnel, 23 percent said they knew a person in their unit was gay, 59 percent said they knew because they were told by that person. 00:38:14

77. 13 News At Noon

DMA: 42

WVEC-TV CH 13 (ABC) Norfolk/Portsmouth/Newport News

01/04/2007 12:00 PM - 01:00 PM

Available formats: QuickView, DVD, CD, digital link, videotape, transcript, NewsBoard

[CC] 00:10:07 Bring the troops home now! Other issues have a way of seizing the agenda, whether the war or other issues, for instance, one house democrat will revive legislation to allow gays and lesbians to serve openly in the military former joint chiefs of staff chairman general John Shalikhshvili this week said he agrees, having seen progress for gays and lesbian in the military --And a military stretched too thin. 00:11:54

QuickView video is available for 21 days from airdate. Material supplied by VMS may be used for internal review, analysis, or research only. Any editing, reproduction, publication, rebroadcasting, public showing, public or internet display is forbidden and may violate copyright laws. Any audience data contained in VMS reports are the copyrighted property of Nielsen Media Research, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Media Values are based on the value of 30 seconds of time as measured by SQAD. (c) Copyright 2005 Video Monitoring Services of America, LP. All rights reserved. VMS searches the contents of Internet blogs for information that falls within the scope of your information requests. Blogs are uncensored, however, and the information that VMS may return to you after a blog search may contain material